Dear Ted,

Did you lose a black Esterbrook last time you were here? I found one on the driveway, undamaged, and will keep it for you if it's yours.

I quit ~~smoking~~ yesterday — yesterday morning was tough, but by today it's easy. Encourage me.

If you're in touch with your family, please give them my love. My letters to them are taking me too long to write, since I keep wanting them (the letters) to be perfect. I'll try to get them written soon.

I got my observation report done, and already got it back from Henrietta, marked Excellent. I was quite pleased with it myself, and will show it to you next time you come.

Good luck in the current countdown — see you after the Ides.

Love,
Deb
